

INSTRUCTIONS: Please use this activity sheet in connection with the Hamilton Cast Read Along session listed below. The activity sheet can be completed during or after watching the Read Along. Students may use the space provided or their own materials to answer the questions.

Unspeakable: The Tulsa Race Massacre

BY CAROLE BOSTON WEATHERFORD (Author) and FLOYD COOPER (Illustrator)

Published by Lerner Publishing Group

READ BY: Tamar Greene (George Washington, Broadway)

THEME: Memory. The author, Carol Boston Weatherford, dedicates the book to “every Black life, every Black hope, every Black dream.” And the illustrator, Floyd Cooper, dedicates the book to his grandfather, “because you talked.” Please keep this theme in mind when completing the activity sheet.

CONNECTION TO SELF

1. How do you think the history of “Black Wall Street” has been reclaimed to be a story of dreams and resistance?

CONNECTION TO TEXT

2. Does your family “talk” and tell family histories and share stories that reclaim history?

2. Draw a picture of a favorite family story: If you are completing this activity sheet on your computer, please describe in a few sentences what you would draw.

CONNECTION TO CAST

3. Tamar Greene said that he did not learn about the Tulsa Massacre in school. What is an unknown story in history you wished people knew more about?

Thank you for participating in Hamilton Cast Read Alongs! We encourage you to share this activity sheet with us by email at hamilton@gilderlehrman.org.
